This new apartment with a window facing a poetic green courtyard is part of the exclusive VII. Dům project, a house that is currently being refurbished in a place with an incredibly strong genius loci, on the corner of Valdštejnské Square. The building's long and rich history, modern Czech interior design, and facilities from premium brands create an impressive combination.

The area of the 1st floor apartment consists of a living room with a window towards the quiet courtyard, a kitchen area with a window facing Valdštejnská Garden, a bathroom, and a foyer.

The interior design was created by the Formafatal studio of architect Dagmar Štěpánová. High-end facilities include an oak floors in a modern chevron pattern, Agorà designer radiators from the Italian brand TUBES, a fully equipped bathroom with underfloor heating, a Villeroy & Boch sink, a Hüppe shower tray, a Tece toilet, and Bongio faucets, an Invisidoor door with concealed hinges and DND Handles, or new wooden windows. The building's central boiler system provides heating by gas condensing boilers. Residents of the building have access to elegant common areas with a Classicist staircase, complete with original Czech lighting, and an elevator for convenience.

The neighborhood in which VII. Dům stands is exceptional due to the presence of the most famous monuments in immediate proximity. This prestigious address is in the middle of Malá Strana, yet tucked away from the main tourist routes. It's only a few minutes' walk to a tram and metro station, with beautifully landscaped palace gardens, Petřín Gardens, and Kampa Park with the romantic Čertovka nearby. Famous restaurants and stylish cafes, as well as luxury hotels with spa and fitness services, can be found in the immediate vicinity.

Floor area 36.0 m<sup>2</sup>.
