This family residence with an outdoor heated swimming pool and private 2,021 m<sup>2</sup> pond, also suitable for recreational fishing, is located in a poetic, absolutely quiet location with perfect privacy in the village of Zaječice, approximately 20 kilometers from the southeastern outskirts of Prague. The property has been completely renovated and can be variably adapted to the needs of the new owner and the intended use.

The ground floor with a kitchen, a bedroom, a bathroom, a toilet, a large entrance hall, and a living area with a fireplace is connected to the garden by French windows. On the first floor is a quiet zone with 4 bedrooms and a bathroom with a bathtub and access to the terrace. The attic offers the possibility of the further expansion of the living area.

The interior of the estate boasts traditional casement windows and wooden floors in the bedrooms. Tile floors in the other parts of the house. On the ground floor is hot water underfloor heating in combination with electric heaters and on the first floor electric underfloor heating also with heaters. Heating is provided by an electric boiler and a gas connection is also available. The overall reconstruction of the house also included all the sheet metal, copper, and a new roof with high-quality and very durable tiles. In the garden is a seating area covered by a pergola, a heated swimming pool, and a deep well with drinking water and a depth of 40 meters. The house includes extensive land and a large pond, which can be used for many purposes.

The village of Zaječice is located in the Velkopopovicko Nature Park, which includes the picturesque Lada Region. The location is popular for its beautiful landscape with clean air, no industrial and warehouse areas, and also for its good accessibility to Prague via the D1 highway. Civic amenities are available in Pyšely, less than 5 minutes away by car or bus, and it is not far to Říčany or Benešov with complete infrastructure.
