A stunning glass-fronted residence designed by a renowned Portuguese architect rises above an expansive 3,747 m² plot, offering panoramic views of the sea and the seaside resort of Estoril from its terraces and balconies. An exceptional lifestyle experience is ensured by a private wellness area featuring a sauna, fitness facilities, a Turkish bath, and both indoor and outdoor swimming pools.

The main floor features a spacious living room with double-height ceilings and access to a terrace, a dining area that flows through to a fully equipped summer kitchen, and a bathroom. The modern kitchen is highlighted by a six-meter-long kitchen island and premium Küppersbusch appliances. An elegant staircase leads to the upper floor, which houses three suites, including a striking master suite of approximately 200 m² with a walk-in wardrobe and access to a balcony. The lowest level is dedicated to rest and relaxation, offering an indoor swimming pool clad in Imperial marble, a gym, sauna, Turkish bath, and practical service facilities. This level also includes a games room and a fully equipped private cinema. Additional amenities include a large garage with capacity for up to ten cars, storage rooms, and a two-bedroom staff apartment.

Premium natural materials used throughout the interiors include travertine, Calacatta marble, and oak and ebony wood. An elevator serves all floors. The house is further equipped with a home automation system, integrated sound system, and advanced technologies ensuring high energy efficiency, supported by photovoltaic and solar thermal panels.

The charming seaside town of Estoril, together with neighboring Cascais and Sintra, forms the so-called Golden Triangle, located approximately 25 minutes by car from Lisbon. Among the most popular local beaches is Praia de Tamariz, known for its fine golden sand and a coastal promenade stretching all the way to Cascais. Sports enthusiasts are drawn here for Formula 1 races and the Estoril Open tennis tournament. The town offers a wide selection of inviting restaurants, well-maintained golf courses, and bars open late into the evening.
