Historical building with modern office space for lease in the center of Prague. The building is part of the Early Baroque St. Ursula church complex. Architect Kilián Ignác Dientzenhofer helped design the Ursuline convent.

Original Baroque walls have been preserved in some of the attic offices. The complex is right next to the Church of St. Ursula. The space has been newly reconstructed to a high standard. Tenants will have access to part of the garden in the courtyard. The neighborhood is home to a complete infrastructure and a wide selection of restaurants and cafes.

Location:

Excellent accessibility by car and public transport, a few steps from the Narodni trida or Mustek tram stop and metro stations (line B). Within walking distance of the National Theater, Vltava embankment, Žofín Island, and Charles Bridge.

Features and Services:

Air conditioning
Vinyl floors
Low-voltage wiring
Elevator
ESS, EPS
Home phone
Parking on Voršilská Street
Kitchenette and toilets

Rents and service charges are listed without VAT. Lessee pays no commission.
